

FLORIDA CHIROPRACTIC ASSOCIATION

JOURNAL

Advertising Rates & Deadlines

The JOURNAL is the official publication of the Florida Chiropractic Association, Inc. It is distributed to the Florida Chiropractic community by email and online access.

The JOURNAL continues to provide relevant content for today's chiropractor including six feature articles, an Insurance Q&A department, information on the latest C.E. offerings for both in-person and virtual learning, as well as timely updates on legislation affecting the chiropractic profession. Live weblinks within the JOURNAL will allow the reader to quickly visit an advertiser's web page for additional information. This provides further engagement opportunities.

When a new quarterly issue becomes available, FCA will send subscribers an email notification with a link to the full edition which is easily accessible on fcachiro.org. These readers then make purchase decisions for goods and services ranging from computers, office/clinical equipment and supplies to insurance services and real estate.

It's easy to see why the FCA JOURNAL has a nearly estimated 6,000 subscribers in Florida and nationwide! To request a copy of the Journal or if you have questions, please email Heather Weber at Heather@fcachiro.org.
